Yogi Bhanan, Master of Kundalini Yoga, arrived in the United States in 1969 with a stated mission: "I have come to create Teachers, not to gather disciples." Since then he has travelled internationally teaching Kundalini Yoga, the Yoga of Awareness. In 1969 Yogi Bhanan founded 3HO — the Happy, Healthy, Holy organization, based on his first principle "Happiness is your birthright." Through 3HO and the Kundalini Research Institute (KRI), Yogi Bhanan trained thousands of Kundalini Yoga Teachers. In 1994, 3HO founded the International Kundalini Yoga Teachers Association, (IKYTA), to further spread these priceless teachings through the united efforts of Kundalini Yoga teachers worldwide.

Additional classes: students are required to attend a minimum of 20 Kundalini Yoga classes during the training. These must be taught by a Kundalini Yoga instructor registered with KYTA.

Evaluation of the Student: The final evaluation of the student for completion of the course will be based on completion of the above criteria as well as the Tutors' general evaluation of:

- o The student's involvement with the course [including leading yoga sessions on the course]
- o General grasp of the practical material
- o Commitment to the 3HO Code of Professional Standards for Kundalini Yoga Teachers
- o Satisfactory completion of exam and course work [see below]

Where appropriate the evaluation will include an interview between the student and two Tutors.

- o Pass a satisfactory grade in the written exam
- o Design two separate course curricula

Evaluation of Tutors: The student is required to complete a brief confidential evaluation form for each of the KRI Tutors on the course. These will be submitted to the head office of the Kundalini Research Institute (KRI).
